'Party-crasher — Shows Up Uninvited'

Dear Ann Landers: Please print this letter for my parents. They don't know the difference between a party-goer and a party-crasher.

The boys stayed for about half an hour and my folks were present all the time. My folks were very cordial to them, but as soon as they left we got a blistering parental sermon on party-crashers.

Please tell my uninformed parents that party-crashers are kids who come to a party uninvited and try to wreck the place. The fellows were very well-behaved and we were happy they came over. Thank you a whole lot. — TERRY AND HER FRIENDS

When Jim came home I thought he would be thrilled to see everything set up. But instead he was very disappointed. He said he wanted to do those things himself and that I should have waited for him.
